Madhur Thareja

PROFILE

Pursuing Bachelor's in Electronic Systems from Indian Institute of Technology Madras and Bachelor's of Science in Computer Science from Birla Institute of Technology and Sciences, Pilani , I blend academic knowledge with practical skills in Linux systems and scripting. My proficiency spans across Linux distributions like Ubuntu, Fedora and Unix Operating System, scripting in Bash and Python, and tools such as Git. Beyond technical skills, my strength lies in problem-solving, clear communication, and a keenness for continuous learning.

 I've honed my abilities to innovate and collaborate effectively. I'm driven by the challenge of troubleshooting and the satisfaction of delivering solutions that enhance efficiency.

As I seek to embark on a journey as a Linux Intern, I bring enthusiasm, adaptability, and a commitment to contribute to and grow with your team.
